Due consideration should be used as the motivations of the stalking groups are in no way limited to the above.

TACTICS USED BY STALKERS

BRIGHTING

Brighting is a term jokingly referred to by stalkers to indicate the practice of repetitive flashing of a car's high-beam headlights. The victim is usually followed and may be "flashed" from either a "tail-gating" vehicle or a passing or on-coming one. "Brighting" also occurs when bright lights are flashed into a victim's home-windows.

Brighting <http://www.urbandictionary.com/define.php?term=Brighting>

COLOR HARASSMENT

Color Harassment is literally the use of color to harass a victim. Usually, monochromatic color schemes are used, though this choice is pretty much up to the stalkers. An example of Color Harassment would be a line of stalkers, in red shirts, circling a victim. Color Harassment is often combined with other stalking tactics.

CONVOY

Convoy is a tactic of stalkers referring to the practice of a group of "tail-gaiting" cars passing repeatedly in front of the home of the victim. Vehicles used may be of the same color, and stalkers may honk the car horn or flash the car headlights as they pass.

CYBER-STALKING

DIRECTED CONVERSATION

Directed Conversation is a term referring to a stalking tactic using stranger's conversation to both intimidate and to convey to the victim that they are under surveillance. During Directed Conversation, two or more stalkers will approach near to the target and engage in "normal" conversation with one another. The conversation is purposefully made at a level so that the victim can adequately hear what is being said. During Directed Conversation, personal information concerning the victim is inserted into the speech and emphasized by the stalkers in a fashion that most non-victims would not be able to discern as harassment. The purpose of Directed Conversation is to harass a victim, as well as make the victim appear mentally unstable should they attempt to complain about such abuse.

ELECTRONIC HARASSMENT

Electronic Harassment is the use of technological devices to spy on or cause harm to targeted victims. For example, exposure to a high magnetic field has been shown to induce hallucinations in humans while exposure to intense microwave radiation induces psychotic episodes and causes brain damage. A frequent form of Electronic Harassment involves beaming a low frequency "hum" or "tone" into a victim's home or general area. Over time, the exposure causes the victim to lose sleep, become agitated, and suffer the effects of prolonged stress. Such tactics are also being used in cases of hostage situations as well as covert government operations.

SENSITIZATION

Sensitization is a psychological term referring to the forced association between a stimuli and a corresponding reaction. Stalkers use Sensitization to psychologically abuse a victim. For example, if a stalker constantly harasses a victim while wearing a blue baseball cap, then overtime the victim will begin to believe anyone wearing a blue baseball cap is a stalker and is coming to harass. Sensitization undoubtedly creates an extreme level of fear in a victim, in direct fulfilment of the intentions of the stalkers.

STREET THEATER

VARIATIONS OF GANG STALKING

GAS-LIGHTING

The term Gas-Lighting originates from the 1944 film Gaslight. In the movie, the character of Gregory Anton, played by actor Charles Boyer, attempts to drive the character Pauline, played by actress Ingrid Bergman, insane. The phrase Gas-Lighting has come to mean similar actions and behavior, as used in the film, against a victim. 1944 Gaslight starring Ingrid Bergman

CONSUMER STALKING

Consumer Stalking is harassment and abuse directed at a consumer who has either filed a complaint against a company, filed a lawsuit against a company, or who is made aware of illegal activity occurring within a company. Often companies will fund stalkers simply in an attempt to prevent the victim from filing a lawsuit, via using fear and intimidation tactics. Consumer Stalking can also be used to describe certain illegal activities of debt collectors.

CORPORATE STALKING

The term Corporate Stalking refers to a particularly severe form of Gang-Stalking, where a corporation actually provides funding toward the harassment and abuse of a targeted individual, usually someone who is a "whistle-blower", a perceived "problem employee", or else an employee who has witnessed illegal activity occurring within the corporation. The most sinister, and downright evil, tactic used during Corporate Stalking is forcing the victim to see the company psychologist. In most cases, the company psychologist is made aware that the victim is a "dissident" and a threat that needs to be eliminated. A false diagnosis of "general psychosis", "schizophrenia", or other mental illness is made, as well as a recommendation of institutionalization.

"SLAPP"

The term, "SLAPP", short for Strategic Lawsuits against Public Participation, is a term used to describe a systematic and highly organized form of stalking used by corporations in an effort to "stomp-out" resistance prior to the implementation of a controversial goal or plan. Just as the name implies, trivial lawsuits are filed against known activists, and organizations, simply in an effort to drain funding. "SLAPP" is quite effective at weakening, or eliminating, any perceived opposition. Strategic Lawsuits Against Public Participation

"THE WHITE GLOVE TREATMENT"

"The White Glove Treatment" is slang for Gang Stalking as jokingly referred to by the Masons who either participate in, or know of its usage against so-called "Enemies of Freemasonry". [Note: The phrase "The White Glove Treatment" is not limited to Freemasonry, as members of similar groups and organizations often practice Gang Stalking. Also realize that Gang Stalking isn't, and has never been, sanctioned by any Grand Lodge or Governing Body of Freemasonry. It is a rogue practice carried out by groups of Masons without sanction or permission from superiors. This said, the practice is, unfortunately, widespread.]

WORK-PLACE MOBBING

"Work-Place Mobbing" is mobbing that occurs "on the job" and for a variety of reasons. Motivations behind this form of Gang-Stalking include, but are not limited to, the following; mobbing used to force a person to quit a job, usually in order to prevent paying of a benefit such as a severance package, unemployment, or retirement, silencing an employee who has knowledge of illegal activities occurring in the company, or forcing an employee to quit/resign as to open the position to another candidate. Mobbing has recently become a serious issue in corporate environments. Many countries, like Canada, Australia, and the USA, have strengthened their "Anti-Mobbing" laws as a result of such increase.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Does the word "Gang", as in Gang Stalking, refer to "Street Gangs"?

-No. The word, "Gang", refers to multiple people who organize/group together for a common purpose.

What is the difference between Stalking, by a single perpetrator, and Gang Stalking?

-All forms of stalking are physically, emotionally, and psychologically harmful to the victim. With regards to Gang Stalking, the abuse is particularly invasive as the victim is not able to distinguish friend from foe. The majority of the population is aware of cases such as "jilted lover as stalker", and can readily identify key features of such abuse. The little-known phenomena of Gang Stalking allows the perpetrators anonymity and enables future victimizations, as stalkers are actually encouraged by the lack of repercussions. Please keep in mind that victims of Gang Stalking have to deal with an abuse engineered to make them appear insane should they complain to authorities. It is no wonder that victims of Gang Stalking are far more likely to commit suicide than victims of individual stalkers.

Is Gang Stalking illegal?

-Yes! Despite what the leaders or members of stalking groups say or believe, all forms of stalking and harassment are illegal.

Has any former Stalker ever spoken out against Gang Stalking?

-Yes! David Lawson, a licensed Private Investigator in Florida, participated in Gang Stalking for approximately 12 years. He has since written a book, Terrorist Stalking in America, detailing how and why the government, corporations, organizations, and societies hire people to stalk, torture, and harass certain individuals. Organized Stalking by Groups: Summarized Points from "Terrorist Stalking in America" <http://www.catchcanada.org/organizedstalking.htm>

What type of person is most at risk for becoming a victim of Gang Stalking?

-Minorities, "Whistle-Blowers", Activists, Homosexuals, Dissidents, Suspected Pedophiles (Despite the Truth of any Allegations), Informants, People who "Know too Much", Political Rivals, Witnesses to a Crime, People who were "at the Wrong Place at the Wrong Time", Victims of Human Experimentation, etc.

Is it true that Police often participate in Gang Stalking?

-Unfortunately, Yes. Many police officers are also members of organizations that practice Gang Stalking. Also, many police officers use community groups to help keep neighborhoods safe from would-be predators, disregarding the innocent people who get harassed and stalked in the process. The police officers who are sympathetic towards victims of Gang Stalking have admitted that they are fully aware of the phenomena but have little power to stop it due to its widespread nature.

What part of the country is one most likely to be Gang Stalked?

-Victims have reported Gang Stalking in every state of the union, as well as international.

What is the first documented case of Gang Stalking?

-The KKK was the first group who openly admitted to using Gang Stalking practices against African Americans, Jews, Homosexuals, and Caucasians involved in Civil Right Campaigns. In 1826 a man named William Morgan, a former Freemason turned Anti-Mason, threatened to write a book detailing all of the supposed secrets of the craft. He experienced harassment and abuse, identical to that of Gang Stalking, prior to being abducted. His ultimate fate remains unknown. Though these are just two examples, it is likely that Gang Stalking has occurred in some form since the beginning of civilization. Ku Klux Klan

Do the Stalkers ever question or check to see if a targeted victim is indeed guilty of a crime?

-No. There is an "assumption of guilt" among the stalkers. Also, remember that many stalkers are paid for their harassment, so these individuals are not concerned with the innocence or guilt of a victim. Assuming a victim knows the group that is behind their stalking, should they attempt to openly communicate with them?

-Absolutely Not! For one, the stalkers automatically assume the victim is guilty of an atrocity, and thus "deserves" the treatment. Second, many stalkers actually want the victim to engage them in some fashion. In these instances the interaction will be recorded and used as evidence against the victim, especially in attempts to suggest the victim is mentally unstable.

If a charitable and respectable society practices Gang Stalking on the side, should we assume the victims deserve such treatment?

-Absolutely not! When people take the law into their own hands, any notion of "law" is destroyed altogether. I should emphasize that the majority of Gang Stalking victims are completely innocent of any crimes. Any group that performs Gang Stalking is not positive in nature, nor beneficial to society, despite any charitable works they may perform. Likewise, such societies only remain "respectable" because any and all evidence of "wrong doing" is conveniently destroyed or eliminated.

Are Stalkers involved in a Cult?

-Yes, some stalkers are indeed members of cults. Both victims and formerstalkers have reported groups with Heretical Christian, Pagan, and New-Age agendas and beliefs, as practicing Gang Stalking.

What is the connection between Gang Stalking Groups and "The New-Age"?

-Most people are not aware of the connections between "New Age Philosophy" and the Third Reich, nor are they aware that many of the New-Age writers and thinkers of the past were out-spoken Racists, Elitists, and Anarchists. It is in the spirit of this "dark-side" that New-Age groups today participate in, and organize, Gang Stalking. Is Gang Stalking being used as a form of Human Psychological Experimentation?

-In some cases Gang Stalking is indeed being used to silence a victim of human experimentation, as well as conduct certain psychological tests on the unsuspecting public.

ADVICE TO VICTIMS

Remain Calm (Remember, the stalkers want you to appear crazy, as to discredit you.)

The Importance of Witnesses (When in a public place, try to have a trusted companion who can verify the validity of any harassment.)

Keep a Journal (Keep detailed records of each episode of harassment, as well as the names, addresses, phone numbers, and other personal information of the people you know to be involved in the harassment. Keep such documentation as professional as possible. Do not use this journal for any other reason, other than documenting the harassment.

With regard to the stalkers you don't know personally, try to record a description of their faces, eye color, skin color, hair color, height, and weight. If you notice a certain stalker on more than one occasion, document this as well. Video Cameras (Install them on your property and in your vehicle) Cell Phones (Do not leave the house without one) Cameras (Keep one on hand when going outside or in public) The Importance of Religion/Spirituality (Stalkers may cause physical, emotional, and psychological pain, but don't let them destroy your Spirit) The Importance of Humour (Humour is a very positive and healing attribute victims should utilize to combat the harm of stalkers) Test your Friends, Family, Co-Workers, and Associates (Devise a test to determine if an individual is working for/participating in the stalking.

[Note: It is quite unfortunate that a victim must "test" friends and family to determine if they are perpetrators. This said, testing of friends and family members is vital for the survival and safety of victims.]

Form Relationships with Neighbours/Strengthen Existing Ones (Neighbours are far more likely to not fall for the lies told by stalkers if there is an existing relationship)

Network with other Victims (Contact other victims and share support)
