

Hello, We acknowledge receipt of your email and we say that the subject of your inquiry not clear to us:

- First we deduce that there is initiated judicial proceedings in the Court number 4 of Marbella, in this case please note that when referring to a strictly jurisdictional and oblivious to the powers of the Department issue, can not in consequence intervene in the same . Since this administration, our job is to provide the Judiciary of human and material resources necessary for the provision of this public service can play with the levels of independence and quality.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may exercise your right to file complaints or complaints concerning the operation of the Courts, bringing the complaint to the Public Service Board of the General Council of the Judiciary <http://www.poderjudicial.es/cgpj/> is / Services / Atencion_Ciudadana / Oficinas_de_atencion_ciudadana) in which it would be desirable to provide further data to help identify the procedure as well as the court itself, by letter in which identification data indicating concerned, the reason for his grievance or complaint body which is headed and the court and proceedings to which it relates.

- On the other hand, if he wants to report an incident to the police station, we hereby provide the email address of the official website of the Directorate General of Police http://www.policia.es/denunweb/denuncias_provincia.php?id_region=22&id_provincia=29 # body

We hope that this information has been helpful.

Kind regards