Jayne Owens called the Royal Mail 12th December 2015 re delayed mail from Spain

First call: Belinda (Royal Mail) between the 12th 14th December 2015

After a long conversation with Belinda giving her all the tracking numbers she put the info into the system but did not get any more new information that we hadn't already got off of the royal mail online tracking service. Belinda took my phone number and said she would try and get more information and call us back. (I gave her my phone number).

Before the conversation finished at some point I asked her, her opinion on the delayed mail she thought it very strange and could not understand why it would take so long.

Conversation Ended

Call Back from Belinda (same day) Royal Mail 12th December 2015

She said she had just found out information she did not know when speaking to me before that she had been told there was a Hugh back log of international mail and the back log would not be cleared until the 20th so should go out then, but was not definite. So she said call back on the 20th.

Conversation Ended

Two more calls: Jenny Jenkins Royal Mail 14th and 21st December 2015

Called Royal mail on the 21st December as the mail on the tracking service on the internet still stated the letters was still in Heathrow clearing.

Spoke with Jenny Jenkins again explained the situation regarding the mail being delayed, that we had posted it on the 27th November 2015 from Spain and that it arrived in the UK on the 2nd December 2015. She thought as Belinda it was very odd.

I asked Jenny if she knew of any reason the letters would be delayed this long has there been any strikes and back logs in mail.

Jenny's reply was "No not anything that would warrant this kind of delay"

She said she was going to speak to the person higher than herself whom would have more clout. And she would get back to me after passing the information on. She gave me her email address .

End of conversation

Jayne Owens did not hear from anyone so emailed jenny on the 22nd December telling her I had not heard anything she replied to me the same day and said she would get her manager to get in touch.

I received an email on the 22nd December from the manager asking for full info of all the mail we have sent, tracking numbers etc.

Jayne Owens received a call from Rebecca Redmond on the 23rd December 11:40

She asked for me to send all info as she had on the email

I asked her what her thoughts were on the delay of the letters

Her reply was quite different "I think they have probably been delivered but not signed for "

Which I thought was not likely as they were all to different places and the chance of all not been signed for is very unlikely.!!!

End of call

Hi

As I have not heard from you I thought I would email to ask how the investigation of the Very delayed mail is going??

I will not be contactable by phone for 2 weeks as I am away working and am not aloud personal calls in the day. So if there is an issue or you need a question answered you can send an email to me or call the following number 01724 337578 (which you may have) I give permission for you to call this number and speak to a lady called Patricia Fordham. She is my mother. She is also in contact with my Husband so can answer any question you may need answering.

I have spoken with my Husband and relayed what you have said, we both disagree with your statement that the mail may of been delivered without being signed for. This to us seems very unlikely being all of the letters were going to separate addresses. for this to of happened with all of the letters is impossible.

We hope to get a satisfactory answer in the coming week or my Husband will be taking it further.

Kind Regards
Jayne Owens

RE: DELAYED LETTERS FROM SPAIN TO THE UK (POSTED 26/11/15)

Hi Penny

As I have not heard anything from your boss Belinda thought I send this email so you would receive it on your next working day.

Could you push the issue for me regarding the mail from Spain which is now 1 month delayed.

I will not be contactable by phone for 2 weeks as I am away working and am not aloud personal calls in the day. So if there is an issue you can send an email or call the following number 01724 337578 (which you may have) I give permission for you and Rebecca (your Boss) to call this number and speak to a lady called Patricia Fordham. She is my mother. She is also in contact with my Husband so can answer any question you may need answering.

I do hope this can be sorted in the coming week. As if not my Husband will be taking it further.

We do not agree with what you Boss Rebecca said Quote "They(the letters) may of been delivered but not signed for"

This seems very unlikely, That many letters could be un signed as they were all going to different addresses. I have never had a letter come which needed signing and the postman post it or give it to me without getting a signature.

It seems less unlikely this would happen because the persons receiving the said letters.

Please let me know what is being done as soon as possible

Kind Regards
Jayne Owens

Thank you for your emails last week. I apologise for the delay in replying due to being out of the office.

Hi Rebecca

Hope you have had a great Christmas.

Thanks for the update, due to the nature of the letters this will be going to the royal courts of justice in London as part of a bigger case involving corruption by Free masons in the justice system, its a billion pound law suit and involves MI6, MI5 and the UK Government being sued for perverting the course of justice and much more.

You can see some of the details of the case here:

<https://www.invest4justice.com/campaigns/80s-rock-star-falsely-imprisoned-illegally-extradited-suing-spanish-government-for-miscarriage-of-justice-corruption-returns-of-up-to-142-86-usd-per-1-usd-funded/>

The Prime minister is aware of the case and you need to find out exactly what happened.

We believe the mail has been intercepted by corrupt Mason police or security services spinning some sort of story to whoever, you need to ignore them, deliver the letters and get the info on what happened as it will be brought up in the hearings, as to how 5 letters with allegations and evidence that they contain all registered sign for mail, all to different addresses can go missing, and the only one that got there is the one to the Foreign and commonwealth office who are responsible for the people we are suing! EG MI6!

Its clearly a scam to cover their behinds and try and hold up proceedings, its also a criminal offence to interfere with the mail in this way, again this is conspiracy to pervert the course of justice, and we will be filing charges to that effect in the new year.

We don't see any plausible answer other than a criminal offence has been committed by the royal mail in conjunction with the security services, sure the royal mail have been duped, but that wont stop the charges being brought and the case going forward.

Be very carful what you do and who you listen to, you have been told by me, the writer of the letters in clear terms the situation, to go further and not deliver the letters and provide a full explanation as you would have to in court by law no matter who they say they are, could constitute a crime!

Hope you have a great new year

Kind Regards

Gary

Hi Rebecca

Can you please tell me where my letters are, its becoming ludicrous, these are registered letters containing serious information both for the media and government departments. I need an answer, I will be filling a legal case here in Spain within a few days about these letters and others for Spain, and shortly after we will be filling in the high court in London. We will be going to the media with this chain of emails and we will be claiming compensation both here in Spain and in the UK.

Received this Email from Rebecca Redmond 14th January 2016

Dear Mr Owens,

Thank you for allowing me the time to investigate the whereabouts of five items that you sent to the UK from Spain.

After completing my investigations, regrettably I must inform you that I am unable to provide you with any further information than can be seen on the Correos tracking system.

The recipients of each of the five letters you sent, that are not tracked as delivered, receive a vast amount of mail each day. Their mail is delivered in bulk and it is possible to erroneously miss a scan, resulting in no tracking information being provided. It is possible these items have been delivered.

I have contacted the recipient's main offices to see if I could confirm delivery, however due to the considerable amount of mail they receive they were unable to provide me with this information.

If you wish to proceed with your investigation, you will need to contact the sending postal authority (Correos) who will raise an enquiry with Royal Mail.

I am very sorry that I am unable to give you a more positive response on this occasion but I would like to thank you for bringing this matter to our attention.

Kind Regards.

Dear Mr Owens,

Further to my email of 14th January, I can confirm that item reference number RF063397813ES has been delivered to David Cameron, 10 Downing Street. This was delivered to the Prime Minister's Office on 7th December.

I apologise for the distress that has been caused due to no signature being taken on delivery.

Gary Owens sent this Email on 18th January 2016

Hi Rebecca

Could you please provide documentary evidence that the letter to David Cameron was delivered? How do you know it was delivered?

We know from experience that if you write to 10 Downing Street that they acknowledge the letter by return post, we have not had a letter and we always have before!

We can see why the security services would want to say this letter had got there, as the letter is referred to in the Ministry of Justice letter sent to the Spanish justice minister, and we have had an email from them saying they are starting a criminal case over this, and we will be going to court over this issue of illegal mail tampering, theft of mail and perverting the course of justice charges shortly in the UK. You need to do the right thing now, not in court, this will go a lot further, it's not going to go away, and if you're covering up for them we will sue you personally and the Royal Mail!

Could you please also find out where our other 4 letters are that are registered mail, that prove corruption in the security services involving masons, that they don't want to get to the press or anyone in authority?

Kind regards

Gary Owens

Received this Email from Rebecca Redmond 20th January 2016
