Dear Mr Rajoy Brey

I write you on a grave and unjust matter regarding the Spanish Justice system.
Please read the enclosed documents that were sent to David Cameron and the FCO in the UK.
They point out a miscarriage of justice and severe corruption in the justice and police in Spain and the UK. I am asking you for a public enquiry to find out who is responsible for the huge waste of money for my extradition to Spain and the ruining of my life and my family's life for a second time.
The documents enclosed have been sent to several people and will be going to the media also, I want to know what you are going to do about this situation?
I will be taking legal action against everyone involved, this is your opportunity to do the right thing and clean up your country's justice system and give me back my life.

I am currently on bail in Spain, we live in the campo and have no address, please correspond through my UK address.

Kind Regards

Gary Owens
